

Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University Library Consortia for UG and PG Colleges

The colleges/institutes which are having the Institutional Membership, will be entitled to get access to the e-resources subscribed by the Knowledge Resource Centre of the University at their respective colleges. Moreover, they can share the e-content i.e. Video Lectures/PPT of Experts of its own college/department in the database which will be developed by the Knowledge Resource Centre of the University. Further, the member colleges can access this database from their own colleges.

Eligibility for Membership

All colleges affiliated to any state university in Maharashtra can become the Institutional Member.

Categories of Institutional Member

- (i) Technical institute (Engineering Colleges) having both UG as well as PG courses shall have to pay Institutional Membership fee per annum as given in Table 1. Within this membership fees fifteen Departments (as per the list provided by the college) of the college shall get the Institutional Membership of the Knowledge Resource Center. After becoming Institutional Member, the Knowledge Resource Center shall provide one login/password to every Department. However, after those listed fifteen departments, every subsequent department shall have to pay extra membership fee as given in the scheme (Please refer to Table 1) to become Institutional Member.
- (ii) Technical institute (Engineering Colleges) having only UG courses shall have to pay Institutional Membership fee per annum as given in Table 1. Within this membership fees five Departments (as per the list provided by the college) of the college shall get the Institutional Membership of the Knowledge Resource Center. After becoming Institutional Member, the Knowledge Resource Center shall provide one login/password to every Department. However, after those listed five departments, every subsequent department shall have to pay extra membership fee as given in Table 1 to become Institutional Member.
- (iii) Other institute (Science, Arts, Commerce, etc.) having both UG as well as PG courses shall have to pay membership fee per annum as given in Table 1 to become Institutional Member of the Knowledge Resource Centre. Within this membership fees five Departments (as per the list provided by the college) of the college shall get the Institutional Membership of the Knowledge Resource Center of the University. After becoming Institutional Member, the Knowledge Resource Center shall provide one login/password to every Department. However, after those listed five departments, every subsequent department shall have to pay extra membership fee as given in Table 1 to become Institutional Member.

(iv) Other institute (Science, Arts, Commerce, etc.) having only UG courses shall have to pay membership fee per annum as given in Table 1 to become Institutional Member of the Knowledge Resource Centre. Within this membership fees, five Departments (as per the list provided by the college) of the college shall get the Institutional Membership of the Knowledge Resource Center of the University. After becoming Institutional Member, the Knowledge Resource Center shall provide one login/password to every Department. However, after those listed five departments, every subsequent department shall have to pay extra membership fee as given in Table 1 to become Institutional Member.